Educational Background and Business Experience

Form ADV Part 2B, Item 2

Taylor C. Cock

Year of Birth: 1992

Formal Education after High School:

- Northwest University, B.A. Business Administration, 2015
- Northwest University, MBA, Project Management, 2022

Business Background for the Previous Five Years:

- Mr. Cock is registered as a Financial Adviser Representative with Apella.
- Mr. Cock started with Apella in 2021 as a Financial Adviser Representative. Prior to joining Apella, Mr. Cock worked at the following financial institutions:
 - Financial Adviser Representative, Vestory, LLC
 - Client Services Associate, Vestory, LLC
- Mr. Cock earned the Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy® (CAP®)

The CAP® designation provides full time philanthropists, coordinators, and wealth advisors with a common body of knowledge and a shared credential, enabling them to collaborate effectively with clients on legacy planning. The cross-disciplinary workplace curriculum spans and synthesizes the arts and sciences of philanthropic planning, including taxation, finance, fundraising, purposeful planning, family office dynamics, psychology, and strategic philanthropy. With the CAP® designation, designees will be able to integrate charitable planning with the donor or client's overall estate and business workplace plan and help them achieve a positive impact for themselves, their family members, and their community.

Educational requirements: Three years full-time, relevant business experience are required to use the designation. To receive the CAP designation, you must:

- Successfully complete the three required courses designated by the program executive director
- Agree to comply with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures

Participation in the annual Professional Recertification Program is required to maintain the designation. For more information, visit <https://www.theamericancollege.edu/designations-degrees/CAP>.
